

CANDIDACY AUDIT RESPONSE FORM

Candidates whose applications have been randomly selected for a process-check audit must fill out this form.

All candidates are subject to the audit process, but ARTiBA selects applications randomly to preserve and uphold the certification process's integrity and standards. Responding to the audit request and submitting the required documents to prove your candidacy is mandatory. Failing to do so may result in your application being rejected, or you may be restricted from taking the certification exam.

Once the review process is complete, candidates will be notified of the audit outcome via email. If they are deemed ineligible to take the exam, they will not have the opportunity to appeal the decision. Therefore, it is highly recommended that applicants provide all required information and supporting documentation accurately and completely regarding their education, skills, and experience on the form.
